https://fils.utcb.ro/images/anunturi/test_en.pdf

The test is mandatory for all the students who did not study during high school or university entirely in English language or students who don't have a language proficiency certificate (CAE, CPE, TOEFL, TOEIC, IELTS, AQA, bilingual class certificate). Those who have such a certificate must present it as soon as possible to FILS secretary.

In the undesirable situation of a failure, the test can be repeated during the summer and the autumn admissions sessions.

The cost of the test is 270 euro and it is paid only once (for payment details please contact FILS secretary).

In the absence of a positive result at this test or of a language proficiency test, registering in the 2017 – 2018 academic year will not be possible.
